

IMSc60 Celebration

January 2-5, 2023

www.imsc.res.in/imsc60/celebration

The Institute of Mathematical Sciences (IMSc), founded by Alladi Ramakrishnan in 1962, is a national institution for research in frontier areas of computational biology, computer sciences, mathematics, and theoretical physics. The institute members are also actively engaged in training young researchers through a vibrant doctoral program and also sharing the wonders of theoretical and computational sciences with school and college students. This event culminates the celebration of the diamond jubilee.
