

13th Asian Quantum Information Science Conference

presents

An Evening of Bharatanatyam

by

Meenakshi Srinivasan

Meenakshi Srinivasan (<http://www.meenakshisrinivasan.com/>) studied Bharatanatyam under Guru Smt. Alarmel Valli. Her individual approach, technique and creativity are characterized by a distinctive sensuous geometry. As quoted by the press she is “a dancer who embodies both sensitive and playful qualities through a dynamic presence on stage.” Meenakshi is an empanelled artist for the Indian Council for Cultural Relation’s reference panel for artists and has received many other national awards. Currently residing in Chennai, she is also an accomplished architect and runs a boutique Architectural practice called Calm Studio.

The 13th Asian Quantum Information Science Conference (<http://www.imsc.res.in/~aqis13/>), being held at the Institute of Mathematical Sciences, Chennai, during August 25-30, 2013, focuses on quantum information processing, communication and cryptography, an interdisciplinary field bridging quantum physics, computer science, mathematics, and information technologies.

Date : 27th August (Tuesday)
Time : 6:00 pm onward
Venue : Ramanujan Auditorium