One per cent

Genius is one per cent inspiration, ninety nine per cent perspiration.

This workshop was an attempt at a bit of inspiration.

For any inspiration to be effective, it must be backed up by ninety nine per cent perspiration

(hard work over the long term).

This workshop is planned to be an annual affair.

Look out for an announcement next year around the same time.

Spread the word among your friends.

So long!

Thank you.
Good bye. (Until next year.)
